

"The World That Lesbians Built" exhibit

A lesbian culture exhibit by LauRose Felicity - "THE WORLD THAT LESBIANS BUILT", October 13, 2026, 1-4 p.m. at Hannon Library, 3rd floor, Retzlaff Gallery. On display through Thanksgiving.

Hundreds of images of lesbian culture from 1840 to the present, including lesbians at work in art, music, writing, spirituality, political activism (including anti-racist actions), and ecofeminism. Learn about lives lived on lesbian lands, in Ukraine, and in City of Women Festivals.

Meet LauRose and her friends and hear their stories.
