Dear Friends of Paul Revere Charter Middle School,

Thank you for considering a donation to the Paul Revere Charter Middle School Auction, which will be held at the Griffen Club Los Angeles on March 16th, 2024.

We are proud of our community as it comes together to help Paul Revere Charter Middle School. Donations from our parents, friends, and local businesses are what allow our public school programs in music, technology, library, arts, and our farm to be some of the finest enrichments in the LAUSD school district. Your contribution to the auction will directly impact the educational quality of each child at our school. We need your help to give our school the resources it needs to continue to set an example as one of the top public schools in California.

Donating to our auction not only supports our school, it is also an opportunity bring attention to your business!

- Our 1,000+ school families represent 100 zip codes throughout Los Angeles
- Over 50% of the school families live in the neighborhood (Brentwood and Pacific Palisades)
- PRIDE is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization. Your donation is tax deductible
- ALL proceeds from this event go directly to support important school needs

We would appreciate receiving your contribution at your earliest convenience. We will send you a letter acknowledging your tax deductible donation after the conclusion of the auction.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions, and THANK YOU in advance for your generous support!

Sincerely,

The Paul Revere Parent Auction Committee
