

Aus-Hartford Consortium of Gerontological Nursing Excellence

Patron: Adjunct Professor Debra Thoms MSc, MNA, GradCert BioEthics, BA, RN, Adv Dip Arts, RM

EOI Early Career Gerontological Nursing Director

Are you looking to make an impact in Gerontological Nursing? Tap into your potential and consider the following: The Aus-Hartford Consortium of Gerontological Nursing Excellence is calling for an EOI from Member Schools for one Early Career Director.

Vision

The vision of the Aus-Hartford is to ensure optimal evidence-based nursing care for older people across all care settings in Australia through excellence in nursing practice.

Mission

The mission of the Aus-Hartford is to lead capacity building in Australian gerontological nursing education, practice, research, and policy. We aim to develop capable leadership for those charged with providing vital, high-quality care to older Australians in the future.

Early Career Director Position Description

This position is a voluntary position for a term of 2 years.

The Early Career Director is a position on the Aus-Hartford Board of Directors (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Early Career Director).

A Member School employs the individual and is a doctoral-prepared nurse within five years of completion of the terminal degree.

Responsibilities Include

- This position serves as the voice for early career members of Aus-Hartford schools to inform the Board of Directors and strategic plans.
- The Early Career Director will attend ordinary meetings, Executive meetings and annual general meetings.
- The position will engage with and advocate for the needs of early career members.
- The Early Career Director will work closely with the Aus-Hartford committees to build strategic plans to support such needs through available programs and working parties or suggest opportunities for new programs.
- Support a ECR leadership program.

Please forward your EOI and CV to the Aus-Hartford Secretary Assoc Professor Susan Slatyer by Friday 30th May, 2025 Email: Susan.Slatyer@murdoch.edu.au