Same-day voter registration enables voters to register and vote at the same time. Same-day registration is sometimes referred to as Election Day registration.^[1]

HIGHLIGHTS

- As of May 18, 2018, 18 states and the District of Columbia had enacted same-day registration provisions enabling voters to register and vote at the same time.
- In those states that permit same-day registration, voters must generally provide proof of residency (e.g., utility bill, pay stub) and identity (e.g., driver's license) at the time of registration.
