MEMBER OF THE MONTH

MARIAH GUILFOIL-DOVEL

Marketing Communications Specialist
Washington Assn. of School Business Officials

Mariah Guilfoil-Dovel has been an integral part of the Washington Association of School Business Officials (WASBO) for over a year, utilizing her expertise in marketing and communications. With a strong commitment to making a positive impact, Mariah joined WASBO to support its members in school finance. Through her passion and expertise, she has played a pivotal role in promoting the Association's mission and expanding its reach.

Working with an exceptional team at WASBO, Mariah finds fulfillment in witnessing the growth of individuals benefitting from the organization's training and support. The tangible results achieved through their collective efforts bring her great pride and motivation. Outside of work, Mariah finds solace and creative expression through activities like painting and crafting, which provide balance in her life.

Inspired by accomplished women who embrace their authenticity, Mariah draws motivation from her dedicated team of like-minded women at WASBO. Their shared passion for helping others constantly inspires and drives her. In her personal life, Mariah cherishes the companionship of her Pomeranian and Havanese dogs - finding joy, love, and simple pleasures in their presence.
