

Come join our book club series discussion

Stephanie Lunkewitz and Johanna Minassian invite you to join us on April 12 as we host a parent book club for Paul Revere families.

We hope to host an intimate group of parents who enjoy reading and learning but, most importantly, value community at Revere.

All funds will go directly to our school.

Behind Their Screens:
What Teens Are Facing (And Adults Are Missing)

The MIT Press (August 16, 2022)

Behind Their Screens takes adults on a journey through the hidden lives of teens growing up with social media. The book reveals what teens think, how and why they make the decisions they do, and what they need adults to understand if they are to help teens navigate a tricky landscape.
