A picture book edition of a much-loved classic, with illustrations by award-winning artist, Robert Ingpen.

In the Snow White tale, a wicked witch in a black dress, an evil stepmother, and seven dwarfs live in a forest. Snow White is a beautiful girl with long, flowing blue hair. One day, she is poisoned by the witch's magic apple. The seven dwarfs find her and save her with a magic kiss.

All the up of the trees and the sun light and the rain are the seven dwarfs' home.

Dorothy stepped on the slabs, then she and three started walking "Good day," called a friendly Scarecrow. "Could you help me home?" While Dorothy lifted her dress for the path she explained, "I'm going to the Emerald City to visit the Wizard of Oz to see what he can do for me." "Perhaps he might be able to help," said Scarecrow. "I'll come too!"

As Dorothy, Scarecrow and Tinman walked a forest, Dorothy was surprised to see a shadow just off the path. He was there in the open.

"We're going to the Emerald City to see the Wizard of Oz," Dorothy explained, as she pulled her jacket. "I want to go home, and I'm sure you can help me!" "I'll be a lion," said the Tin Man. "I'll come too!"

The wonderful four walked as they walked, when a shadow came from the trees. It had a head and legs, carrying the Tin Man with him.

"Stop that, you cowardly thing!" Dorothy shouted. The Lion lunged for her! "I'm sorry, I'm supposed to be brave and long for some courage!" "Come with us to the Wizard of Oz, might help you," said Dorothy.
