

A NEW SOPBS SERIES

ENERGY HORIZONS

Exploring Oregon's Energy Future

Preview Screening & Panel Discussion Wednesday, October 9 at 4:30pm The Meese Auditorium

Join Southern Oregon PBS for a preview screening of the first episode and series overview of the upcoming documentary series, Energy Horizons: Exploring Oregon's Energy Future, followed by a Q&A with series Director Keegan Van Hook, Videographer Tripp White, SOPBS Producers and Becs Walker, SOU Director of Sustainability.

Brought to you by the team behind Us As We Are, this six-part series takes us on a journey to understand the importance of energy, climate change and resource depletion, along with potential solutions underway across Oregon. The show takes us across the state, exploring current successes in renewable energy, frontier technologies in development, and the challenges around energy storage and transmission.

The series premieres on SOPBS on October 17th.

Check out the teaser trailer here: pbs.org/show/energy-horizons/

Brought To You By
SOU Institute for Applied Sustainability

Please register
using this QR code:

