Chamber Music Concerts Presents Norwegian Brass Ensemble tenThing, Featuring Virtuoso Trumpeter Tine Thing Helseth

Chamber Music Concerts presents tenThing (pronounced ten ting) brass ensemble on Wednesday, February 26th at 7:30pm at the Southern Oregon University Music Recital Hall. The program features an exciting mix of repertoire, with early music to pieces from the present day by Hildegard von Bingen, Gabriel Fauré, Igor Stravinsky, Jennifer Higdon, Astor Piazzolla, and many more. Tickets are $5 for students and $10 for SOU employees. To purchase tickets and see program details, visit ChamberMusicConcerts.org or call 541-552-6154.

Formed in 2007 by Norwegian trumpeter Tine Thing Helseth as a fun and exciting collaboration between musical friends, the ten-piece, all-female brass ensemble tenThing have firmly established themselves on the international scene to great acclaim. tenThing are celebrated for their commitment to outreach and access to music through a diverse repertoire that spans from Mozart to Weill, Grieg to Bernstein, and Lully to Bartók. tenThing first came into prominence thanks to performances all over their native Norway, eventually delighting a huge national audience by opening the 2011 Norwegian Grammy Awards. Soon after, the group drew international attention after their highly successful appearance at the BBC Proms at London's Cadogan Hall. Elsewhere in Europe, they have performed at a wide range of prestigious festivals and concert halls.

In Spring 2017, the ensemble embarked on their American debut tour, which included concerts in New York, Philadelphia, Minneapolis, and at the renowned Wolf Trap Festival. Since then, they have returned to the USA on three occasions, including a holiday-themed program in 2022 and in March 2024 to celebrate Women's History Month. In February, tenThing embark on a European tour with concerts in Italy and Luxembourg followed by a return to North America. The ensemble will play concerts in Vancouver, BC; Palm Desert, California; Ashland, Oregon; Seattle, Washington; and Phoenix, Arizona.
