

WORKSHOP AND FORUM 2025

Theme: From voices to action: conducting patient-centred research to transform kidney health policies

Join in person or online!

Date: Wednesday 19th November 2025

Time: 12:30pm - 4:30pm (AEDT)

Cost: Free to attend

Who: Patients, Carers, Health Professionals, Researchers

WHAT'S IT ABOUT?

- Connecting patients, families, caregivers, health professionals, and researchers
- Explore how patients can influence kidney health research
- Learn how research translates into real-world improvements in care and policy

INVITED SPEAKERS

- Sarah Bernays – Associate Professor, Global Health, Sydney School of Public Health & London School of Hygiene
- Lilia Cervantes, MD – Director of Immigrant Health & Professor of Medicine, University of Colorado

Attend at a location near you!

SYDNEY

Westmead Hospital
Block K, Seminar Room
6002
Westmead NSW 2145

BRISBANE

Translational Research Institute
37 Kent Street,
Woolloongabba QLD 4102

MELBOURNE

Latrobe University, Plenty Road,
Health Sciences Building 1,
Room HSI-230, Bundoora VIC
3086

ADELAIDE

Flinders University City Campus
Festival Tower, Adelaide SA
5000

ONLINE

Details for virtual meeting will be provided closer to the event date.

Register at the following link: <https://tinyurl.com/2uvshyzb>