

People Inc. has added extra safety measures for the Incredible Years Program to continue. Please note the following:

- To help with social distancing, the program is limited to 10 people per session
- Drop off/pickup times will be staggered
- All staff and program attendees will be temperature checked each morning
- All staff will wear masks and participants will be encouraged to do so
- Cleaning and disinfecting procedures will occur regularly throughout the day, following universal precautions provided by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Incredible Years Program

Join us for an incredible summer with a unique social group

The Incredible Years Program offers FREE training designed for parents/guardians who have children with special needs. This social skills program provides guidance, focusing on building social skills, healthy relationships and fostering positive behavior, as well as decreasing negative behaviors.

Who can participate: Children with special needs, between the ages of 7 and 17. Must be eligible for services through OPWDD and reside in the community (non-certified setting).
