

Unlock Growth with Services SETA Bursaries for Your Team

Dear Services SETA Employer,

The Services SETA(SSETA) in partnership with Universities South Africa (USAF), hereby invites individuals employed by levy paying and non-levy paying employers within Services SETA industries (SSP 2023/24– Attached) to submit applications for bursaries. The field of study of applicants should be aligned to SSETA hard to fill vacancies as per Services SETA Sector Skills Plan 23/24. Successful applicants will be funded to pursue studies relating to full/ part or short courses that are SAQA registered and or recognised by a public tertiary institution in South Africa.

Applicants must comply with the following criteria:

- You must be an employee within the scope of Services Seta
- You must not currently hold a bursary within the PSET system.
- Preferably, you must enrol on a course that is aligned with the hard-to-fill vacancies identified in the Services Seta's Sector Skills Plan (see link here SSP 2023/24 Chapter 3)

If you meet these requirements, download the application forms (see links below) and learn more about the program. You will also need to submit the following documents along with your application:

New working student application:

- Proof of registration/Fee Statement (if not, proof of application).
- Bursary Agreement Form/Bursary Registration Form.
- Certified ID Copy.
- Dated and signed proof of employment.
