

Services for Accounting Firm Conflicts

Asterion, Inc. ("Asterion") has extensive experience in Forensic, Valuation and IP services in both dispute and transaction settings. We work with public accounting firms to assist their clients in situations where there are ethical or business conflicts.

Do You Have a Matter:

- Where there is a "business divorce" and your firm represents the business or more than one of the parties in dispute?
- Where a client needs a valuation but you perform attest work and are precluded from assisting the client?
- In which your client is looking for an arbitrator or a neutral consultant in a business dispute or negotiation?
- In which a client needs a royalty or contract compliance "audit" and you have a business relationship with some of the other parties?
- Where there is a need for a forensic examination of an issue where your firm does attest work and has an appearance of a conflict or actual conflict?
- In which an attest client needs expert witness services?
