

Pre-Law Institute

July 6 – August 5, 2021 | 9 a.m. – 12 p.m.
Monday - Thursdays | Online

START YOUR FUTURE NOW

Get a head start and learn what it takes to succeed in law school by attending Fordham's Pre-Law Institute. Earn undergraduate credits studying the fundamentals of the U.S. legal system and U.S. law.

Classes are taught by Fordham Law School faculty, who will introduce the Socratic method of teaching that is common in legal education. In addition to the course topics, optional sessions will prepare you for the law school admissions process and the first year of law school studies.

You may choose to receive 3 undergraduate credits or to take the course without credit at a reduced cost. This course is designed for those contemplating law school but all are welcome.

Certificates of completion will be awarded to all who satisfy program requirements.

LEARN MORE

law.fordham.edu/prelaw

Course Topics Include

- The Art of Advocacy
- Becoming a Lawyer
- Civil Procedure and Litigation
- Constitutional Law
- Corporate Law and Mergers & Acquisitions
- Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure
- Foundations of Private Law
- Intellectual Property & Data Privacy
- Introduction to the U.S. Legal System
- Law School Admissions Basics
- Legal Research
- Legal Writing
- Legislation/Regulation
- Professionalism Series
- Public Interest Law Panel
- Virtual Law Firm Visit
- What Every 1L Should Know