IX. ONR One Liberty Building Access

The Office of Naval Research follows security procedures managed by the Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA). As part of the registration process, all participants will receive an email from PFPA requesting additional information to support their visit. This process is the same process that is used at the Pentagon and the information is needed to provide access to ONR One Liberty Center. To assist with security procedures, we also are asking personnel to identify an arrival window when you register for this event. This will help to smooth the flow of people into the building

X. Questions

If you have any questions, please contact Stephanie Kazimer-Jost via email at stephanie.kazimer-jost.ctr@us.navy.mil.
