FEEDBACK

“My immersion week in Singapore exceeded all expectations. The team created a tightly packed, customised schedule that allowed me to make the most of every moment. Highlights included attending the Agrifood Tech Asia conference, various sideline events, facility tours, and invaluable networking opportunities.

As I sought agrifood tech startups for evokeAG., the team excelled in arranging targeted introductions and connections. Their meticulous planning, from dinner venues to seamless transfers and personalised updates, ensured a smooth and enriching experience. The flawless organisation and exceptional attention to detail made this immersion week truly worthwhile - highly recommended!”
