

NATIONAL CATHOLIC CALL-IN DAY

to Protect Dreamers

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2018

"Migrants and refugees are not pawns on the chessboard of humanity. They are children, women and men who leave or who are forced to leave their homes for various reasons, who share a legitimate desire for knowing and having, but above all for being more."

Pope Francis

Message for World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2014

"Our faith compels us to stand with the vulnerable, including our immigrant brothers and sisters. We have done so continually, but we must show our support and solidarity now in a special way. Now is the time for action."

Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, USCCB President

Archbishop José H. Gomez, USCCB Vice President

Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Chairman, USCCB Committee on Migration

"We call upon Congress to act without delay in enacting a lasting solution, but more than ever, we commit ourselves to living out God's law, which calls on us to love the stranger, remembering that our ancestors in faith were once strangers in a foreign land."

Very Rev. Timothy Kesicki, S.J., President, Jesuit Conference of Canada and the United States
