FAQ

Q: WILL THE STATE OF COLORADO ALLOW ME TO SERVE?

A: The Colorado Medical Practice Act allows physicians licensed and practicing in another state to practice on a short-term basis (approximately a week) in Colorado without the need for a Colorado Medical License.

Q: WHAT ABOUT MALPRACTICE INSURANCE?

A: We require medical volunteers to be insurable. By providing your current insurability, Young Life insurance will cover you while you're volunteering.

Q: WHAT WILL MY RESPONSIBILITIES LOOK LIKE?

A: Wilderness Ranch operates with a two-member medical team that provides 24-hour medical coverage for camp – one nurse intern at camp all summer and a volunteer physician. The team is issued a two-way radio so that there is medical contact with the camp staff at all times. While the nurse will be working a semi-normal camp day schedule, we ask the physician to help primarily with intake on Day 1 (reviewing health forms and camper meds), advising on medical calls from guides on adventures throughout the week, and addressing any medical situations that arrive in basecamp. There will be times where you will be asked to provide nighttime medical assistance. In the case of a true emergency, our nearest hospital is 90 minutes away.

FAQ CONT.

Q: CAN MY FAMILY COME? WHERE WILL WE STAY AT CAMP?

A: We invite your family to join you! We are able to accommodate your spouse and children 17 and younger. We have a range of cabins available, depending on the family size of the physician for the week. Most cabins include a kitchenette and access to laundry facilities. Meals will be provided daily in our dining hall with our staff. You are responsible for your own travel expenses.

Q: WHEN DO WE NEED TO ARRIVE? DEPART?

A: We ask that you arrive at Wilderness Ranch between 2-4pm the day before your camp week begins. You will have orientation at 5pm with our camp manager and nurse. You and your family will need to be checked out by 9AM the morning after the last day of camp.

Q: HOW IS THE CONNECTIVITY AT CAMP? I HEAR IT'S REMOTE.

A: Wilderness Ranch is remote! Cell service does not often work around camp, but we do now have reliable internet service in main camp. It will not reach your cabin. We also have landline phone service available in the office.

Q: SOUNDS GREAT! HOW DO I APPLY?

A: Applications are open for the medical volunteer position. Simply fill out the application HERE and upload your professional resume. We are hoping to fill all of our medical positions by early spring.
