

LITTLE GESTALTEN

SPRING 2024

“Readers are lucky—they will never be bored or lonely.”

NATALIE BABBITT

Good books pique children’s natural curiosity, impart knowledge, and hearten them to be empathetic and brave. Little Gestalten aims to bring beautifully designed, written, and illustrated books to readers around the world.

Let’s start with a brand new title in the well-loved Explore the ... series with Emma and Louis. In Exploring Space we learn all about the incredible reaches of space and the universe, with Anton Hallman’s lovely and charming characters helping us along the way. Throughout history, people have traveled many hundreds of thousands of miles in the pursuit of knowledge and fortune and Epic Journeys takes us along for the ride. Next, Animals Everywhere is a stunning book about the incredible biodiversity that can be found on planet earth, visiting many beautiful habitats and the creatures that live in them. Lastly, Fishing for Shapes is the newest addition to our board book list from brilliant Argentinian illustrator, Marcos Farina. This stunning book of first shapes is a colorful delight.

Every time a reader picks up a book, they walk away a more open, more creative person, uniquely able to interpret and use what they have learned as they carry on in life. Our books are aimed at children, but no matter who you are, they delight and inspire everyone who reads them.

We hope you enjoy our new list of titles.

Little Gestalten

About us: Little Gestalten celebrates today’s most innovative authors and illustrators by bringing their work to life through original works of non-fiction, charming picture books, activity books, and pop-ups. Thoughtfully designed, diligently printed and bound, our books are pushing the boundaries of traditional storytelling.

RELEASE (EUROPE & UK): FEBRUARY 2024
RELEASE (INTERNATIONAL): MARCH 2024

WHAT TO EXPECT

- An illustrated book about the great routes, voyages and epic journeys that people have made throughout history
- Since Homo sapiens first walked on two feet they have always traveled great distances for a wide variety of reasons: hunger, the search for a better place to live, religion, adventure, or curiosity
- The latest book from the author and illustrator duo of Raquel Martín (Antarctica, Africa, Mapamundi, Tribes, among others) and Sam G. C. (Tribes)

Great trails, voyages, and journeys throughout history.

Sam G. C. and Raquel Martín undertake their most ambitious and original work to date: the history of the routes that women and men have taken throughout the ages. Sam's telling of mankind's migrations around the world will have readers dreaming, while Raquel's entrancing illustrations inspire a journey of the imagination. The Silk Road, the Trans-Siberian railway, the Camino de Santiago, the Appian Way, the Cathar Way, and the Inca Trail are just a few examples of how humankind's great routes are much more than simple journeys.

SAM G. C. lives in Menorca and is a writer and illustrator of comics. He has a passion for his family, but he is also intensely dedicated to his art and to spreading the values of respect for biodiversity as well as the richness of being different.

RAQUEL MARTÍN is the illustrator of some of our most representative books and best valued by readers and critics, such as Antarctica, a continent of wonder; Africa, the continent of colours, and Mapamundi. Todo lo que se puede explicar en un mapa. She lives, works and takes care of her children in Mahon (Menorca).

The incredible world of the animals, plants, and other natural phenomena that live their lives throughout the night.

Most living things are active as long as the sun shines in the sky, but at dusk, when the light dims, life continues. The moonlight illuminates the Earth, plants come to life, animals awaken, and some organisms glow like jewels in the dark. For these creatures, plants, and natural phenomena, the night falls and their day begins. Nocturnal is a beautiful invitation to come along and learn all about these mysteries of the night.

LUCAS RIERA is an author, editor, and teacher specializing in natural history. He lives and works in Barcelona, Spain.

ÁNGEL SVOBODA is an illustrator, designer, publicist, and author of many published books. He grew up and still lives in Alicante, Spain. In his free time, he loves drawing comic books and contributes with his art to the preservation of nature.

What makes an animal smart? What is smart? The brainpower of these brilliant beasts may surprise readers of all ages.

Our human brains have taken us all around the globe, and even into space ... But we are not the only clever creatures on the planet. Some animals are so smart that we don't even know the extent of their intelligence.

How do some animals play? Can they use tools? How do they solve problems? Smart Animals answers all these questions and more, as well as featuring octopuses navigating mazes, rats outsmarting lab experiments, dolphins giving each other names, orangutans solving riddles, counting honeybees, and much more. Get ready for the most marvelous and mind-blowing masterminds from our animal kingdom!

MICHAEL HOLLAND studied Ecology at Lancaster University and Oregon State University and is a keen photographer, wildlife gardener, and all-round composting nerd! He is the author of the bestselling title I Ate Sunshine for Breakfast, and this is his first book about animals.

Slovakian illustrator DANIELA OLEJNÍKOVÁ is passionate about screenprinting and linocut and has illustrated more than 20 titles for junior readers. Her illustrations include strokes of the stylus and colors layered over print—but some are as simple as shapes combined with patterns and textures. She lives in Bratislava. After illustrating the bestseller In Great Numbers, this is her second book with Little Gestalten.

The world's most incredible spy stories.

From ancient Rome to Tudor England, all the way through to the 20th century, the art of espionage has come a long way. But one thing has never changed—humans have always found surprisingly creative ways to gather top secret intelligence.

This book presents eight of the most notorious spies in history, from the 16th-century spymaster of Queen Elizabeth I to the Serbian-born agent who may have inspired the character of James Bond. Top Secret has everything you could wish to know about the world of spies, agents, and secrets.

SOLEDAD ROMERO MARIÑO began her career as a creative mind in advertising. In parallel, she founded her own publishing house where she collaborated with artists from all over the world. She now dedicates herself exclusively to the creation of children's books as an author and editor. After Famous Robberies and Legendary Escapes this is her third book with Little Gestalten.

JULIO ANTONIO BLASCO has worked as an illustrator and graphic designer for 15 years. He uses drawing, painting, collage, and other techniques to give life to books and characters. Besides drawing, he likes dreaming and being outdoors among plants, leaves, and flowers. Top Secret is his third book with Little Gestalten, after Famous Robberies and Legendary Escapes.

This classic Japanese fairy tale tells the story of Issun Bôshi, the tiny son of an old, long-childless couple.

Tiny and brave—these are the two most striking characteristics of Issun Bôshi. His mother had longed to have a child for so many years that she finally added “even if it is a very small one” to her wish. When the elderly couple did in fact bear a son, he turned out to be only one inch high. He was thus called Issun Bôshi, Japanese for one-inch boy.

Although his parents raised him very lovingly, Issun Bôshi realized one day that he would not grow any taller. He then left his home to set off on a journey to find his place in the world. Because he saw himself as a swordfighter, a samurai, he made sure to take along the right equipment: a needle was his sword, a soup bowl was his boat, and a chopstick was its rudder.

As in any proper fairy tale, Issun Bôshi is tested in several adventures. He handles himself so bravely that, in the end, he is rewarded with just the right princess.

ICINORI are Mayumi Otero and Raphaël Urwiller. Mayumi Otero is a French illustrator of children's books whose drawings and etchings are often playfully ironic. Her colleague Raphaël Urwiller is a graphic designer and illustrator who works for newspapers and magazines in addition to creating children's books. Together, Otero and Urwiller designed Issun Bôshi in a style reminiscent of Asia.
