

SOU Staff Assembly Meeting This Week

The SOU Staff Assembly will gather for their regular monthly meeting this Thursday, May 23rd at 10am on the Zoom at <https://sou.zoom.us/j/84524986250>. Staff colleagues will discuss upcoming elections for new Staff Assembly representatives, and the floor will open up for feedback from this week's Campus Conversation and solicit ideas and initiatives for Staff Assembly to take on to best represent the workers that keep the campus running.

The meeting agenda, minutes of past meetings, a Google calendar to help everyone track our meetings and a contact form for questions and concerns can all be found at the Staff Assembly website: <https://staffassembly.sou.edu/>. Hope to see you there!
