

Emory Graduate Christian Fellowship – 2021 Leadership Opportunities

Emory Graduate Christian Fellowship is a grad student community experiencing God's grace through Jesus and inviting people from all programs and cultures at Emory to join us in following Him.

We seek to bless the university and to grow in love for God and neighbor through practices of spiritual formation; integration of our faith, studies and work; and proclamation of the good news about Jesus in word and deed.

To pursue this vision effectively, we need students contributing their gifts and passions. We are looking for people in GCF that would like to serve on a student leadership team for 2021. This team would work together to discern God's leading for GCF and guide our community and events accordingly. Here are some ways you could lead:

- President: Official Liaison with GSGA and the overall university graduate student community.
- Treasurer: Keeping the books, submitting budget requests and handling reimbursements.
- Secretary: advertising events, maintaining the listserv and social media and OrgSync pages, and monitoring correspondence with people who write the group with questions; also maintaining notes from leader meetings and files related to best practices.
- Small Group Leader: Provide an intimate, welcoming environment, relevant teaching, and an open and engaging format, where people can explore Christian faith and learn to live the gospel in daily life:
  - a spiritual formation group (Bible study, book/video study, prayer, or service group)
  - a group focused on integrating Christian faith, thought, and practice with a specific area of study at Emory (PhD, Medical/Nursing, Rollins, law, business, theology, etc.)
  - an investigative Bible study or book study that actively invites non-Christians and tailors discussions to their concerns.
- Event Coordinator: Organize social, service, outreach and/or worship gatherings where people:
  - have fun and build solid friendships,
  - hear and understand the Christian gospel
  - grow in attentiveness to God's leading in their lives as followers of Jesus in grad school
  - (could include First Friday Dinners, Veritas, service, worship, or school-focused events).
- Connections Coordinator
  - Coordinate beginning-of-the-semester follow up with new and returning students who are not yet regularly involved in the fellowship
  - Implement a "buddy" program to connect students within their areas of study
  - Stay aware of who is not consistently participating in the fellowship and help people find a home in GCF

Are you interested in contributing in one of these ways in the coming year? Do you have another idea you'd like to work on? If so, email gcfemory@gmail.com to indicate which position(s) you are interested in and request an application (to be submitted by December 15, unless otherwise arranged). If you have questions as you go, email or call, and we'll figure out the answers. We look forward to hearing from you!
