

CREATION VACATION | Boldly Create Your 2025!

Are you ready to live your best year in 2025?

Imagine sacred time away to connect to your deep creative core and generate powerful energy, so you will bring all of your greatness into the world next year.

Does this sound like you?

- You sometimes find yourself using so much energy for what you have to do that you don't have a lot left for what you want to do.
- You want to embrace all of your passion and live your biggest, boldest life.
- You yearn for a clear vision for what next year can look like, and how you can make the most of it.

Most of us live on autopilot, stuck in exhausting routines.

We push ourselves to squeeze every bit of productivity out of each day, thinking that will create space for what we want more of. Instead, we find ourselves drained of vital energy for what really matters.

Unfortunately, we rarely slow down to nurture our spirits, connect to our hearts, and bring our deepest desires front and center. And that's where the magic really happens.

By living like that day after day, month after month, you feel regret that you're not living the life you truly want.

This isn't your vision for the future, is it?

The life you want is within your reach.

At Creation Vacation, you will have the opportunity to step out of your routine and cultivate the creative energy waiting to be powered up inside of you.

You can not only cultivate that energy, you can learn how to sustain it and continue to build it.

When you bring that activated, powerful energy to every opportunity, you will soar!

- You'll have more satisfaction, personally and professionally.
- You'll feel more confidence and agency, which will lead to having a bigger impact.
- You'll feel more fulfilled each day, and experience more joy.
- You'll be fully expressed and inspired, and live your vision!
- Your natural state of being will be elevated.

Imagine yourself a year from now, living more boldly and vibrantly creating your life!

Now imagine a decade of growth and expansion as a creator, and what your life will feel like, knowing you've made big, bold decisions and lived your best life!

Why I do this work

I lived for decades in a frantic blur of activity, not even considering how to include space or time to connect to my deep desires, or take ample care of my health and wellbeing. My spirit was relegated to a back burner. I was surviving but not truly thriving.

And I was shut down creatively, a fact I was afraid to even look at. The busier I was, the easier it was to ignore that nagging issue.

When I began to work with a coach and finally woke up in my life, I sold my business and took a deep dive into understanding creativity and its power. I learned to be the creator of my life and how to bring creativity into everything I do, and I made creativity the focus of my work with other great women who are ready to step into their power and ready to light up their lives.

I have witnessed remarkable change they've brought into their lives, reaching new levels of confidence, making their dreams a reality, creating dynamically as artists and writers, making big career moves (including launching great businesses and reaching CEO positions). They are having their biggest impact and relishing their greatest fulfillment.

Are you ready to truly Live Big?

If you are excited to think about what's possible in your life, there's a special opportunity that may be perfectly timed for you.

Creation Vacation — Boldly Create Your 2025

is happening January 20 to 25!

This is your invitation to activate your spirit and access deep creative energy to fuel your best year ever.

When you start 2025 with focused time to create a strong vision and learn to activate the creative energy you already possess, you will be able to boldly live the year you dream of.

January is the ideal time to take a few days away to devote to yourself and focus on your future. Not only will you be guided to gain clarity about your vision for your life and cultivate bold energy, you will learn how to sustain and build that energy all year.

What's possible for you is limitless!

Creation Vacation is designed to support you in depth.

- You will live in a gorgeous, spacious house by the ocean in York Maine for 5 nights, arriving for dinner on Monday January 20, and departing on Saturday, January 25.
- You will share the house with 7 other magnificent women, all engaged with you in deep, meaningful work to cultivate powerful creative energy.
- Meals will be a delight — healthy, hearty, beautiful.

- There will be exciting creative expansion and meaningful somatic experiences to fully embody the insights that unfold.
- There will be fun — creative exploration and play, movement, laughter.
- There will be flexibility and personal time.
- There will be one-on-one coaching support, in advance of the retreat and during the retreat.
- As soon as you enroll the program begins — so that you will arrive at the retreat immersed in the process and ready to build on that foundation.

If you planned an experience with all of what is included in this robust program, to do on your own, the cost would far exceed the fee to be among the select group at Creation Vacation, $6000.* And if you register before November 30 you will save $500!

This program is offered by invitation.

The women I am inviting — including you! — have all focused on personal development and can go deep together.

And, there are only 8 spots available to be a part of this intimate retreat.

Let's talk soon to explore this experience for you.
