

New Upper School Faculty 2022-2023

Mr. Stuart Alden joined the Haverford community for the final two quarters of last year to teach computer science and will transition to a full time role in the mathematics department in 2022-2023. After earning a B.A. in Mathematics from Middlebury College and M.A. in Mathematics from the University of Michigan, Mr. Alden enjoyed a long career as a senior leader in the business world where he worked as an actuary and consultant. Mr. Alden will teach Statistics and Computer Science during the coming year.

Mr. Bhelly Bagbonon comes to Haverford after five years of teaching history, advising a variety of student organizations and coaching multiple sports at Penn Charter. Mr. Bagbonon earned a B.A. in History and Secondary Education from Immaculata University and is in the final stages of earning an M.A. in History from Villanova University. Joining the history department to teach Ancient World History, Modern World History and African American History, Mr. Bagbonon will also serve as a Third Form advisor and freshman football coach.

Mr. Keith Cappel will teach Upper School mathematics and serve as the Director of Soccer Program. Prior to serving as the head coach of men's soccer at Ursinus College, Mr. Cappel taught math and coached at The Shipley School. Mr. Cappel holds a B.S. in Mathematics from The Catholic University of America and will teach Algebra II and Geometry.

Ms. Javon Johnson will teach Upper School Spanish. Ms. Johnson holds a B.A. from Temple University and an M.A.Ed. from LaSalle University. A teacher since 2015 with experience teaching Spanish in multiple area schools, Ms. Johnson spent last year teaching and living in Spain. Ms. Johnson will teach Spanish III and Spanish IV during the coming year.

Ms. Maria Luis will teach Spanish during the 2022-2023 academic year. A native Spanish-speaker who was born in Ecuador, Ms. Luis has prior experience at Haverford having served as a substitute teacher filling in for teachers on short or long term leave. Ms. Luis earned a B.A. from Miami International University of Art & Design and will teach Spanish III and Spanish V.

Dr. Theodora Naqvi joins the Modern and Classical Languages Department to teach Latin. Dr. Naqvi holds a B.A. in Anthropology from Colorado State University, an M.A. in Classics from Florida State University and a Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania in Classical Studies and has teaching experience at both the collegiate and high school levels. She will teach Latin I, Latin III and Latin III*.

Mr. Anthony Pariano joins the Upper School faculty after teaching English in the Middle School since 2017. Mr. Pariano began his teaching career in 1998 after earning a B.S. in Education and Social Policy from Northwestern University and a M.S.Ed. from John Carroll University. Mr. Pariano will teach English II and English III and serve as a Third Form advisor.

Mr. Jarrett Tate joins the Haverford Community as a college counselor, Third Form advisor and coach in the swimming program. After earning a B.A. in English from Rhodes College, Mr. Tate worked in college admissions at Kenyon College, Georgia State University, University of Georgia and University of South Carolina. Most recently, Mr. Tate served as a college counselor and head swim coach at St. Stephen's Episcopal School in Bradenton, Florida.

Dr. Callie Ward holds a Ph.D. from Stanford University in Iberian and Latin American Cultures and a B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania in English. Dr. Ward spent the final half of last year at Haverford teaching a Sixth Form elective and has prior teaching experience on the collegiate level at the University of Pennsylvania and Stanford University. Joining as a full time faculty member for the coming year, Dr. Ward will teach English II and English IV.