We love because God first loved us.

Cover photo:
Donovan Drake.

About the Prelude

The Prelude is a musical offering to help move the hearts and minds of the gathering community from the daily struggles of life to the worship of God.

Worship on the Lord's Day

Worship begins as the people gather - greeting one another, praying in silence, or offering music to the glory of God. The act of assembling in Jesus' name bears witness to the Church's identity and mission as Christ's body in the world.

About Hymn 366

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song. TEXT: Charles Wesley, 1747; MUSIC: Rowland Hugh Prichard, 1831.

GATHERING

(Silence during the Prelude is requested in preparation for worship.)

PRELUDE	This Joyful Eastertide	Sondra Tucker
	Hail Thee, Festival Day!	Douglas Wagner

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us worship God!

(Those who are able may stand.)

The Lord is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed!

O come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For the Lord is our God;
we are the Lord's people,
the flock that God shepherds.

(Psalm 95:6-7)

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

We behold your glory, O God, in the love shown by your Son, lifted up on the cross and exalted on high.

Be glorified anew in the love we have for one another as disciples and the risen Lord Jesus, who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever. Amen.

(The Cross and Bible lead the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ - the Living Word, and the Bible - the written Word.)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 366

HYFRYDOL

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

CALL TO CONFESSION

In raising Jesus from the dead
God shattered the power of sin and death.
All the prophets testify that everyone who believes in Christ receives forgiveness of sin through his name. (Acts 10:43)

Let us confess our sin before God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God,
we confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death.

You love us with an everlasting love.
We profess our love for you,
and yet we fail to love one another.
You show compassion,
but we persist in judging others.
Forgive us, God of mercy.
Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord.

(Silent confession)

Kyrie

Hal H. Hopson

(Sung responsively by the choir and congregation)

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the Good News:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

*The Peace

Since God in Christ has forgiven us, let us also forgive one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

*(Please exchange the peace with the words,
"The peace of Christ be with you.")*

Call to and Prayer of Confession

Having praised the holiness of God, we must also face the errant state of the world and of our lives, confessing our unworthiness to enter into God's presence. Still, we approach God with confidence, trusting in the mercy of Jesus Christ. This turn from communal praise to corporate confession, established on the promise of God's grace, is one of the hallmarks of the Reformed tradition.

About the Kyrie

The Kyrie (Greek "kyrios" [Lord]) is a corporate musical prayer for grace.

Assurance of Pardon

A declaration of forgiveness proclaims the good news of God's mercy and offers the assurance of pardon in Jesus' name. The liturgist pours water into the font, which reminds us of the grace and cleansing of our Baptism, and the baptismal call to new life in Christ.

Act of Praise

The Act of Praise brings together the choir and congregation to sing God's praise.

Scripture

The scriptures bear witness to the word of God, revealed most fully in Jesus Christ, the Word who "became flesh and lived among us." (John 1:14) Where the word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the living Word is present by the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, reading, hearing, preaching, and affirming the word are central to Christian worship and essential to the Service for the Lord's Day.

About Hymn 631

This text is based on the affirmative later parts of Psalm 22 (especially verses 3, 22-28) has an unusual structure, with alternating lines of stanza and refrain. It also has an uncommon history, as the first stanza was written in New Zealand and the remaining stanzas in Canada. TEXT: Stanza 1, Brent Sinclair Chambers, 1977; stanzas 2-3, Bert Polman, 1986; MUSIC: Brent Sinclair Chambers, 1977.

*ACT OF PRAISE

(The congregation sings with the choir.)

The Word of the Lord lasts forever.
What is the Word that is living?
It is Jesus Christ, who is risen from the dead.

Prayer of Ordination and Installation

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal God, we give you thanks for your steadfast faithfulness to us...

Gracious God, through the waters of baptism, you have claimed us as your own and called us to share in Christ's ministry.
Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, that we may discern the gifts you have given,
calling them forth from one another,
and together use these gifts for the good of all.
In obedience to Christ, and in the unity of his Spirit,
may we proclaim good news,
make disciples, be light and leaven,
share our bread, offer a cup of cold water,
and wash one another's feet.
Make us strong in Christ to live as your people and show forth your saving love in the world, by the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

OFFERING

Anthem (8:30 a.m.)

God So Loved the World Aaron David Miller

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that ev'ryone who believes in him should not perish,
but have eternal life....

For God sent not his Son to the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved....

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that ev'ryone who believes in him should not perish,
but have eternal life.

Amen, amen, amen, amen,
God so loved the world.

Anthem (11:00 a.m.)

Let Us Love In Deed and Truth Larry King

If anyone has the world's goods, and sees his neighbor in need,
yet closes his heart against him,
how does God's love abide in him?

Let us not love in word or speech,
but in deed and in truth.

By this we shall know that we are of the truth:
we have confidence before our God,
and we receive from him whatever we ask,
because we keep his commandments,
and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment,
that we should believe in his Son,
Jesus Christ, and love one another.

This present-day setting of John 3:16 by Aaron David Miller has become a lovely addition to sacred choral repertoire since its first publication in 2008. The text is set to a flourishing two-part, mixed-voice arrangement, and a beautiful "Amen" closes the anthem with peacefulness and beauty. Miller is a highly-respected organist best known for his exceptional improvisational skills. His orchestral works have been performed by such ensembles as the Seattle Symphony, Chicago Symphony, Zurich Symphony, and St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. He is Director of Music and Organist for House of Hope Presbyterian Church in St. Paul, MN.

*THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Please see page 34 of your hymnal for text to this prayer.)

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day. TEXT and MUSIC: Peter Scholtes, 1966.

Ordinary people testifying to the extraordinary light found in our Lord Jesus Christ.

"For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us."
