

Portland Housing Bureau

Feb 2019

Powell-Division Transit and Development Project: Affordable Housing Update

The Powell-Division Transit and Development Project coordinates equitable affordable housing development with investments in new high capacity transit infrastructure between downtown Portland and Gresham. As part of the Locally Preferred Alternative (LPA), the Portland Housing Bureau has promised the community 300-600 new units of affordable housing through this strategy, with a goal of locating 20-25% of the new housing in East Portland.

Powell-Division Corridor Affordable Housing Projects

Affordable Housing Progress

GOALS

New Construction 300 to 600 Units

East Portland 20-25% (60-150) Units

STATUS

387 Units

101 Units*