

WHAT'S NOW, NEW AND NEXT AT SOUTHERN OREGON UNIVERSITY

Panel looks at writers' careers

On November 13, 2025, from 5:00-6:00pm, the Friends of Hannon Library will host a panel discussion on "How to Make Writing a Career."

How does someone make a career as a writer? This panel explores how different writers have built their careers, honed their skills, developed strategies and work habits, and made connections to become professional writers. The panelists will share their stories and tips. Featuring Robert Arellano, Holly Searcy, Virginia Morell, and Ryan Pfeil, with moderator Ed Battistella.

This Friends of Hannon Library event is free and open to the public. It will take place in the Meese Room (room 305) of the library, and a Zoom link will also be available on the Friends website (<https://hanlib.sou.edu/friends/lectureseries.html>). To view previous lecture series events, see the Hannon Library YouTube channel at <https://www.youtube.com/@SOU-HannonLib>.

Metered visitor parking is available for those coming to campus to attend the event in parking lots 1, 12, 29, 36, 37 and 41. Those who need disability accommodations to participate in the event may contact SOU's Disability Resources office at (541) 552-6213. For more information, contact Hannon Library staff at libraryevents@sou.edu or (541) 552-6816.
