

What's Your Opinion?

By Beula Postlewait, Communications Representative

How does a company decide a client's home insurance coverage needs? Usually, an agent will discuss the needed coverage with the client before coming to an agreement and formulating a policy.

Nazarene Educators Worldwide (NEW) offers membership to educators in a variety of educational settings. We would love to sit down and discuss each educator's unique educational needs. Since we cannot do that physically, we are asking for your help electronically. Marilyn Dominick, our NEW chairperson, has formulated a survey that will give us information about the educational needs in your setting. (If you are retired, we have opportunities for you to serve by encouraging and praying for educators as well as sharing what you have learned.)

How can we help you? Are you interested in meeting in-person with other educators for inspiration and training on the district or regional level? Would you like online workshops? Would you like Zoom meetings with other educators in your area of teaching or administration? Are you interested in the latest research on methods and materials?

We would like to hear from you. You can give us this information by clicking on the link below:
