RESEARCH OVERVIEW

This report presents the findings of a study of travelers to Oregon, conducted by Destination Analysts on behalf of Travel Oregon. The study was conducted in three parts, with the primary objectives of:

- Developing a profile of Oregon visitors, including their psychographics, travel personas, and demographics
- Understand their travel behaviors and motivations, as well as in-destination activities and spend
- Provide data to support Oregon visitor volume estimates by region and segment
- Gauge visitors' in-destination experience and identify what is successful, what can be added, and what can be improved

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

The three components of the study included:

- Online panel survey of U.S. travelers who visited Oregon between January 2021 –
   December 2022
- Online survey of Travel Oregon partners' owned audiences who visited Oregon between January 2021 – December 2022
- Online survey of Portland International Airport's WiFi users who visited Oregon between January 2022 – December 2022

The data is weighted according to Travel Oregon's specifications, including regions visited within Oregon.

TOTAL VISITORS Summary

DEMOGRAPHICS

• Visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 averaged 51 years of age, skewed somewhat female (58%), were usually married/partnered (74%), and reported high average household incomes ($118,901). One quarter had children in their household (26%). Most identified as White/Caucasian (85%). One-in-six had accessibility needs (17%).

TRIP PURPOSE

- Half of these Oregon visitors were taking a vacation/leisure trip (52%). Most remaining visitors came to visit friends/family (23%) or for business (11%).
- Most 2021-2022 visitors had been to Oregon before (83%). Therefore, fewer than one-in-five were visiting for the first-time (17%).
- Scenic beauty (90%) and a relaxing environment (88%) topped the list of important factors for choosing Oregon in 2021-2022. Affordability (82%), cuisine (81%), environmental quality (80%), inclusive/welcoming atmosphere (80%), outdoor recreation (79%), and safety (78%) ranked next.

TRIP DETAILS

- Oregon visitors spent an average of 5.4 days on their trip in 2021-2022. Almost half visited Portland on their trip (46%), but other parts of the state attracted visitors as well, particularly the Oregon Coast (37%) and Willamette Valley (35%). One-in-five ventured to Central Oregon (22%), Southern Oregon (21%), and/or Mt. Hood/Columbia River Gorge (20%). Eastern Oregon lagged somewhat (13%).
- On average, visitors to Oregon spent $259 per person per day in-destination. Lodging accounted for the largest share of wallet ($66 per person per day), followed closely by restaurants/dining ($61). Remaining expenditures for recreation, rental cars, gas, and groceries hovered between $20 and $30 each per day.
- Two-thirds of 2021-2022 Oregon visitors enjoyed food and drink while on their trip (65%), the leading activity. Half (48%) engaged in outdoor recreation (hiking/biking/fishing, etc.). A quarter to a third of visitors also chose these popular activities: shopping (31%), scenic rides (28%), arts/culture (22%), and business/family events (22%).

SATISFACTION, RECOMMEND, & RETURN

- · Visitors to Oregon consistently expressed very strong satisfaction in all three measures: satisfaction, recommending, and likelihood to return.
- Nearly all visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 were "very satisfied" or "satisfied" overall with their trip (95%). Further, at least three-quarters assigned top marks to local food (89%), outdoor recreation (85%), inclusive/welcoming (83%), value for money (79%), and safety (76%).
- Overall, Oregon achieved a Net Promoter Score (promoters minus detractors) of 44.
- An excellent level of nine-in-ten visitors feel "likely" or "extremely likely" to return to Oregon in the next 12 months (88%).

VFR VISITORS Summary

DEMOGRAPHICS

• Visiting Friends or Relatives (VFR) visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 averaged 52 years of age, skewed female (66%), were usually married/partnered (68%), and reported high average household incomes ($106,732). One-in-five lived with children (19%). Most identified as White/Caucasian (86%). One-in-six had accessibility needs (17%).

TRIP PURPOSE

- Most 2021-2022 Oregon visitors had been to the state before (86%), so it was the first Oregon trip for relatively few (14%).
- Although not as predominant as for other leisure visitors, scenic beauty still heads the list of important factors in deciding to visit Oregon in 2021-2022 for VFRs (84%). Other leading criteria, cited by at least three-in-four VFR visitors, included a relaxing environment (82%), affordability (77%), and cuisine/local food (75%). Environmental quality (74%) and inclusivity/welcoming (73%) rank very highly as well.

TRIP DETAILS

- Oregon visitors spent an average of 6.0 days on their VFR trip in 2021-2022. The Portland region drew half of VFR visitors (51%), by far the leading destination area in the state. Roughly a third visited the Willamette Valley (38%) and/or the Oregon Coast (32%). One-in-five included Southern Oregon (21%), Mt. Hood/Columbia River Gorge (18%), or Central Oregon (17.6%) on their trip. Eastern Oregon lagged the other areas (9%).
- VFR visitors to Oregon spent an average of $208 per person per day in-destination. Restaurants/dining accounted for the largest share of wallet ($58 per person per day). Although many likely stayed with their hosts, lodging still ranks second in spending ($39). Shopping ($28) and recreation/entertainment ($22) follow.
- Two-thirds of 2021-2022 Oregon visitors enjoyed food/drink while on their trip, by far the leading activity (69%). The next-in-line activity choices included outdoor recreation (44%), business/family events (35%), and shopping (34%). Another quarter added a scenic ride (25%) to their trip.

SATISFACTION, RECOMMEND, & RETURN

- VFR visitors to Oregon consistently expressed very strong satisfaction in all three measures: satisfaction, recommendations, and likelihood to return.
- Nearly all VFR visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 were "very satisfied" or "satisfied" with their trip (95%). Further, three-quarters or more assigned top marks to local food (88%), inclusiveness/welcoming (80%), outdoor recreation (79%), and value for money (75%).
- Oregon received a Net Promoter Score (top promoters minus detractors) of 39 among VFR visitors.
- An excellent level of nine-in-ten visitors feel "likely" or "extremely likely" to return to Oregon in the next 12 months (91%).

BUSINESS VISITORS Summary

DEMOGRAPHICS

• Business travelers to Oregon in 2021-2022 averaged 46 years of age, skewed somewhat male (55%), were usually married/partnered (75%), and reported very high household incomes ($137,654). Reflecting their somewhat younger age than most other travel segments, nearly half (47%) lived with children. Most identified as White/Caucasian (80%). One-in-six had accessibility needs (17%).

TRIP PURPOSE

- All business travelers reported some element of business on their trip, primarily saying "business travel" (70%). The segment also included those traveling for a combination of business/leisure travel (21%) and those coming for a conference/convention (10%).
- Four-in-five had been to Oregon before, so relatively few were visiting for the first time (17%).
- A relaxing environment led the list of factors important to the trip decision (83%). Scenic beauty (81%), cuisine (80%), and affordability/value (80%) closely follow. Three-quarters stressed lodging/accommodation options (78%), an inclusive/welcoming environment (77%), safety (77%), and environmental quality (76%).

TRIP DETAILS

- Business travelers spent less than a week on their trip to Oregon (4.9 days) in 2021-2022. The Portland region drew half of business visitors (53%), by far the leading destination area in the state for them. A third visited the Willamette Valley (31%) while one-in-five went to the Oregon Coast (21%), Southern Oregon (21%), or Central Oregon (19%). Somewhat fewer traveled to Mt. Hood/Columbia River Gorge or Easter Oregon (15% each).
- Business visitors to Oregon spent an average of $365 per person per day in-destination. Lodging accounted for the largest share of wallet ($102 per person per day), followed by food/beverage ($80) and rental cars ($53). Shopping ($33) and recreation/entertainment ($33) follow.
- As with other segments, food/drink lead other activities, selected by half of business travelers (54%). However, business/family related events ranked second (42%), well ahead of the more leisure-oriented choices of outdoor recreation (33%), shopping (22%), and arts/culture options (18%).

SATISFACTION, RECOMMEND, & RETURN

- Business visitors expressed very strong satisfaction with two of the three measures: satisfaction and likelihood to return. Meanwhile, their recommendations for visiting Oregon, while high, lagged the level noted by leisure visitors.
- Almost nine-in-ten business visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 were "very satisfied" or "satisfied" with their trip (88%). Further, three-quarters or more assigned top marks to local food (86%), inclusiveness/welcoming (80%), outdoor recreation (78%), and value for money (77%).
- Oregon received a lower Net Promoter Score (top promoters minus detractors) of 21 among business visitors.
- An excellent level of nearly nine-in-ten business visitors feel "likely" or "extremely likely" to return to Oregon in the next 12 months (87%).

FIRST TIME VISITORS Summary

DEMOGRAPHICS

• First time visitors to Oregon in 2021-2022 averaged 45 years of age, the youngest of these segments. They skewed somewhat female (55%), were usually married/partnered (72%), and reported high average household incomes ($118,206). Two-in-five lived with children (40%) and most identified as white (74%). One-in-seven (15%) had accessibility needs (15%).

TRIP PURPOSE

- More than half of first-time visitors were taking a vacation/leisure trip (56%). A nearly equal share came to visit friends/family (16%) or came for business (15%). No other purpose exceeds five percent. None (by definition) had been to the state before.
- Scenic beauty (89%) and a relaxing environment (85%) topped the list of important factors for choosing Oregon in 2021-2022. Other leading criteria, cited by at least four-in-five, included cuisine (82%), affordability/value (82%), safety (81%), accommodations/lodging choices (81%), and outdoor recreation (80%).

TRIP DETAILS

- First time visitors averaged less than a week on their trip to Oregon (4.6 days). Portland led other areas of the state in attracting first time visitors (46%), with the Oregon Coast in a somewhat distant second-place (29%). A quarter ventured to the Willamette Valley (24%) while other areas lagged (ranging from 11% to 17%).
- First time visitors to Oregon spent an average of $312 per person per day in-destination. Lodging accounted for the largest share of wallet ($75 per person per day), followed not-too-distantly by dining ($70). Rental car spending ($42), recreation/entertainment ($36), and shopping ($34) consumed most of the rest of the travel budget.
- Food and drink led all other activities on the trip (60%). Just under half participated in outdoor recreation (43%). A quarter shopped (26%) or took a scenic ride (26%). About one-in-five added arts/cultural heritage (20%) or a business/family event (18%) to their trip.

SATISFACTION, RECOMMEND, & RETURN

- First time visitors expressed very strong satisfaction. Overall, nine-in-ten were "very satisfied" or "satisfied" with their trip (91%). Further, more than three-quarters assigned high satisfaction to local food/cuisine (87%), outdoor recreation (84%), inclusiveness/welcoming (81%), safety (78%), and value for money (78%).
- The majority expect to return to Oregon in the next 12 months (66%). While lagging other segments, the level indicates that Oregon was enticing enough to encourage another visit.
- Oregon received Net Promoter Score (top promoters minus detractors) of 26 among first time visitors, relatively low in comparison to other segments.

PRIMARY REGION VISITED

Over a quarter of 2021-2022 Oregon visitors noted that the Portland Region was their primary destination (26.3%). The Willamette Valley (20.6%) and the Oregon Coast (20.2%) each attracted a fifth of visitors. Those choosing Vacation Rental accommodations were more likely drawn to the Oregon Coast (33.4%) and more campers/glampers came for either the Oregon Coast (20.4%) or Southern Oregon (20.2%) compared to those in other segments.

Question: What was the primary purpose of your trip?

LENGTH OF STAY - DAYS

Oregon visitors, during 2021-2022, typically stayed about five days (5.4 days on average). Four segments averaged longer stays, led by those staying in private homes (7.5 days), followed by campers/glampers (6.2 days), VFR visitors (6.0 days), and those staying in vacation rentals (6.0 days). Hotel/motel guests (4.6 days) and first-time visitors (4.6 days) cut the trips a bit shorter.

LENGTH OF STAY - NIGHTS

Oregon visitors, during 2021-2022, typically stayed less than five nights (4.7 nights on average). Following the same pattern as number of days stayed, four segments averaged more nights, led by those staying in private homes (7.0 nights), followed by campers/glampers (5.7 nights), VFR visitors (5.3 nights), and those staying in vacation rentals (5.4 nights days). Hotel/motel guests and first-time visitors (both at 4.0 days) stayed the fewest nights.

TRAVEL PARTY SIZE - ADULTS

Two-thirds of visitors traveled to Oregon with one other adult companion (65.2%). Consistent with that, the average travel party size hovered near two adults (2.2 adults overall, typically falling with the narrow range of 2.0 to 2.3 adults). Only one segment diverges notably from that average: those renting a vacation rental (2.7 adults in their travel party).

Question: Which cities in the Portland region did you visit on the most recent trip? (Select all that apply)

MT. HOOD & GORGE CITIES VISITED

Of those visiting the Mt. Hood & Columbia River Gorge as their primary region, two-thirds stopped in Hood River, by far the most-visited city in the area (66.2%).

Regardless of segment, Hood River always tops the list. Cascade Locks (32.9%) and The Dalles (33.7%) each drew about half as many as Hood River as they vie for the second-place spot.

SOUTHERN OREGON CITIES VISITED

Among those who visited Southern Oregon as their primary region in 2021-2022, more than a third of visitors included Medford on their trip (37.3%). Consistent with having the largest population in the region, and thereby the most people to visit, VFR visitors (52.9%) and those staying in a private home (50.2%) were most likely to visit Medford. Grants Pass (30.2%) and Ashland (29.3%) compete for the second-place spot. Additionally, Roseburg (23.5%) and Klamath Falls (20.5%) each attracted more than one-in-five.

Question: Which cities in Southern Oregon did you visit on the most recent trip? (Select all that apply)

WILLAMETTE VALLEY CITIES VISITED

Visitors who went to the Willamette Valley as their primary region of visit mostly chose among five cities, led by McMinnville (39.2%). A third also opted for Dundee (32.6%), Newberg (32.1%), Salem (31.9%), and/or Eugene/Springfield (29.8%).

However, Salem and Eugene/Springfield top the list for the VFR and Private Home segments. These two cities each draw about two-in-five of these Willamette Valley visitor segments (ranging from 39.4% to 44.3%).
