ASSOCIATION EXCELLENCE

DECEMBER 2023 MEMBER OF THE MONTH

MICHAEL DEVAN

Director of Sales
Hotel Interurban

WSAE is pleased to announce our December Member of the Month, Michael DeVan!

Michael has been an integral part of the Hotel Interurban team for the past 1.5 years, showcasing dedication and passion in the hospitality industry. His journey began as a night auditor. Through hard work and determination, he climbed the ranks to the sales department, where he found his niche working with associations.

What sets Michael apart is his genuine commitment to making a positive impact. He has a deep appreciation for working with non-profits, highlighting the satisfaction of contributing to a meaningful cause. According to Michael, knowing that he is working towards a cause gives him a tremendous sense of purpose. He feels truly rewarded, especially when there is a gala coming up that aims to raise funds for the organization.

Michael's enthusiasm for supporting non-profits extends beyond the workplace. In his free time, he is actively involved in coaching his daughter's basketball team, showcasing his leadership skills and dedication to community involvement. Additionally, Michael finds relaxation in watching football and cherishing moments with his family.

As we celebrate Michael DeVan as our December Member of the Month, let's take a moment to appreciate his dedication to both the hospitality industry and the non-profit sector. His story is an inspiration and reminds us that our work can be both fulfilling and impactful.

Congratulations Michael on this well-deserved recognition!
