

The Vanderbilt Project on Unity & American Democracy

Sign Up Today for the Vanderbilt Unity Lab

intercultural-competency training program

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

- Vanderbilt staff, faculty, undergraduate and graduate students and post-docs
- Students must be enrolled full-time and for the entire academic year
- Students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, and have schedule flexibility

WHAT IS THE UNITY LAB?

The purpose of this project is to gain an understanding of the potential relationship between intercultural competence and facets of unity, empathy, critical dialogue, and political division. By conducting this research, we aim to gain a better understanding of the ways in which promoting dialogue and conversation, and engaging across difference might contribute to developing intercultural competency skill sets.

AS A PARTICIPANT, YOU MAY

- ◆ Take an online survey
- ◆ Partake in a debrief of survey results
- ◆ Be trained on four nationally recognized models
- ◆ Participate in focus groups

BENEFITS

Selected participants will receive modest compensation.

We also hope this experience might inform the ways in which participants engage within differences in ways that promote unity, trust and belonging.

Scan the QR code to submit your interest

For more information, contact Ayaz Mammadov at unitylab@vanderbilt.edu
or 615-343-8315

SIGN UP TODAY!

<https://shorturl.at/quIMR>