

WHAT'S NOW, NEW AND NEXT AT SOUTHERN OREGON UNIVERSITY

All invited to participate in Ashland parade

All members and friends of the campus community are invited to join the SOU contingent at the Ashland Fourth of July Parade on Saturday, July 4.

This year's theme is "Creating Our Future Together," and is an opportunity to visit with friends and colleagues, celebrate shared dreams and honor the university's partnership with its community. Organizers of the SOU parade entry will welcome all faculty, staff, students, alumni, retirees, family members and friends to walk together in the parade.

Those who want to be present for parade judging can find the SOU contingent beginning at 7:30 a.m. in the parking lot off Mountain Avenue across from the Music Building (Lot 36). The SOU group will be in Aisle A near Henry Street, in the first two stalls. The group will move to Triangle Park shortly before the parade's 9:30 a.m. start to take its place near the front of the parade route.

Participants are encouraged (but not required) to wear Raider gear and help showcase the spirit, resilience and community that make SOU special. Director of Marketing Nicolle Aleman is coordinating SOU's parade entry, and those who have questions can reach her at alemann@sou.edu.
