

Spring Long Night Against Procrastination May 7!

Don't miss out on the ultimate study night at Hannon Library's Long Night Against Procrastination (LNAP) event! Save the date for the 2024 Spring LNAP happening on Tuesday, May 7, 2024, from 8 pm to midnight at Hannon Library's first floor.

Join us for a night of support, resources, and fun:

- Free pizza and drinks to keep you fueled (while supplies last)
- Extended hours in the Tutoring Center
- Research assistance for your term projects
- Raffle for a special prize - your chance to win!
- Special guests from across campus for advising and support ... and so much more!

Whether you're looking to get ahead on assignments or just need a late-night study boost, this event is designed for you! Set yourself up for success and beat that procrastination bug. Get ready to conquer procrastination at LNAP!

Spread the word and invite your friends! See you there!
