Chamber Music Concerts Presents the Reverón Piano Trio from Venezuela

"The Reverón Trio shines...the Reverón Trio exuded virtuosity" El Diario de Puerto Rico

Chamber Music Concerts (CMC) presents the Reverón Piano Trio (violin, cello, piano) on Saturday, October 18th at 7:30pm at the Southern Oregon University Music Recital Hall, 450 S Mountain Ave, Ashland, OR. Tickets are just $5 for SOU students and $10 for SOU employees. Email director@ChamberMusicConcerts.org for a discount code or call 541-552-6154.

Named after Venezuelan painter/sculptor Armando Reverón, the Reverón Piano Trio are active promoters of Latin American music and have devoted their careers to the discovery, cataloguing, performance, and recording of this rich repertoire. The trio continues to commission new works, and is in the process of creating the Sphinx Catalog of Latin American Piano Trios. Ana María, Simón, and Horacio are all Venezuelan artists who have made their home in the United States.

Recent engagements include concerts at the Festival Casals in Puerto Rico, Latin American Music Initiative's first conference, Aruba Symphony Festival, the Beethoven Festival Park City, the Collaborative Piano Institute, Festival A la Vela de la Alhambra in Granada, and Universidad de los Andes in Bogotá, Colombia. Additionally, the trio has been in residence at the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, University of Wisconsin, Dickinson College, Lawrence University, Louisiana State University, the Westfield Center for Historical Keyboard Studies, the Collaborative Piano Institute, and various other universities in the U.S. and abroad.

The Reverón's concert program for CMC features Dmitri Shostakovich's Piano Trio no. 2 in E Minor, Op. 67; Ricardo Lorenz's La Hamaca/The Hammock; and Manuel M. Ponce's Trio Romántico. Don't miss the free pre-concert lecture at 6:30pm.
