Located in North Africa, Tunisia is at the crossroads of African, European and Middle Eastern cultures. Students will visit the Lybico-Roman City of Dougga, the Ancient City of Carthage, Saint Louis Cathedral, the Roman Bath of Antoninus, the Café des Nattes of Sidi Bou Said, the Souks & Medina of Tunis, the Byzantine Casbah of Beja, and the Mausoleum of Sidi Boutefaha. The program also includes homestays with Tunisian families, cooking lessons, Sufi and Berber music performances, meetings with young Tunisian activists and lectures by Tunisian scholars.
