Pronouns: she/her/hers

Strengths: Restorative, Individualization, Achiever, Activator, Significance

“Education is one of my greatest passions. It is such a powerful tool that has the great capacity to change lives. Whether it's watching my young daughters learn something new, helping a college student work through a misstep, or seeing a first-generation student graduate, I really love what education can do for people and am always grateful to be a part of their journey.”

Nicole joined the Zeta Tau Chapter at Grand Valley State University (GVSU) where she held leadership positions in the chapter as well as multiple other student organizations. She holds a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and an M.A. in Higher Education and Student Affairs Leadership, both from Western Michigan University. Her B.A. from GVSU is in Psychology.

Nicole traveled as a leadership consultant upon graduation and has been volunteering for the sorority ever since. She served as the social responsibility advisor for the Zeta Tau Chapter and has held several national volunteer roles including volunteer recruitment and placement team member, risk management and standards coaching team member, risk management project team leader and region 5 facilitator. She is currently a member of the volunteer development resource group. She has presented at District Day and The Academy as well as assisted with an extension presentation and has worked with fraternal and higher education partners to facilitate large and small group programming for a variety of participants.

Nicole currently works as the Director of Student Conduct at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan. She loves spending time outdoors with her wife, Heather, their three daughters, Zoe, Lily and Marlie, and two dogs, Porter and Sirius.
